Club Accounts

Further to the announcements in the May and July Newsletters the Committee has received and agreed a revised set of Accounts for each of the years 2014 to 2016. The Independent Examiner, George Gray, has reviewed the Accounts and added his report to each year.

As it is now more than 7 months since the AGM, the Committee has decided to carry forward presentation of the revised Accounts to the next AGM so that the Annual Report will carry pages covering the years 2014 to 2016 and, as usual, the latest year, which will be 2017. This would save on the substantial printing and mailing costs that would have been incurred if a Special General Meeting had been arranged. Full details of the problems with the past accounts will be provided at the AGM in March, which will be followed by a recital by Thomas Trotter.

RFH Organ Scholarship

Club member William McVicker has informed us of the Dame Gillian Weir Organ Scholarship, which will fund the Southbank Centre's Organ Scholar for the next ten years. The first recipient will be David Thomas, the Director of Music at St Mary's Church in South Croydon, and holder of the organ scholarship at St Martin-in-the-Fields.

OCSO news

A new release from Delphian features OCSO member, Alexander Little, and former OCSO member, Peter Shepherd, on a new CD of Christmas hymns and carols played on the superb organ in Merton College, Oxford.

The Organ Club Archive

The latest edition of the Organ Club Archive (uploaded January 2017) is available for download from the Club website (www.organclub.org) or on a CD. It includes information on all the Organ Club visits made since 1928 and all the organs visited during that time which number over 4,000. It also has an index to all the main items that have featured in the Club's Journal from 1948 to the present.

Club member John Stratton has informed us that the programme, The Choir, broadcast on Sunday afternoons on BBC Radio 3, is now being called Choir and Organ, and on the first Sunday in each month will be devoted entirely to the organ.

Organ Music Sale in Dorking, Surrey

Club member John Bartlett has informed us that the Performing Arts Library in Dorking is selling off a lot of ex libris organ sheet music for only 50p per copy. There is no list, unfortunately – visitors just need to go and rummage. The library is closed on Sundays and Mondays, but open from 10am on other days. The music covers all periods but the majority is from the 1950s onwards.

Honour for Carol Williams

Congratulations to Club member, Carol Williams, who has recently returned from her closing night concert at the Spreckels Organ in Balboa Park, San Diego, where she performed with her band (The CWB) a Doors tribute for about 3500 people. After a grand entrance carriage ride through the audience, Carol had the honour of being presented with a proclamation awarding her the title of San Diego Civic Organist Emerita.
