1. NOTICES

A tempting invitation from immediate Past President Paul Hale:

Happy New Year, everyone!

I'd be pleased to hear from any Club members who would be interested in a mini-tour of significant Norfolk organs from Tuesday 10th June to Saturday 14th June, on which day the Club is already planning to meet at Norwich cathedral.

Andrew Stevens, Richard Bower and local organ expert Dr Andrew Hayden have helpfully expanded my knowledge of the most interesting organs we could fit into four days, using our own cars, as we did so successfully on the Isle of Wight.

We would be based in Norwich, staying at one of the three Norwich Premier Inns, probably the 'Norwich Nelson City Centre' one, as it's the cheapest and the only one to have free on-site parking (a room there for the 4 nights we need is currently advertised at £368; staying on to Sunday 15th would cost a further £150).

If sufficient members email me at PaulHale@diaphone.clara.net by the end of January, I will get on and arrange it, aiming to confirm by the end of February whether or not it will take place.

We also need sufficient drivers to host those who use the train, so please offer if you can.

Do come and join me for another of our jolly trips!

Best wishes, Paul.

Membership Issues

I am very grateful to Ian Miles for his sterling work producing all three 2024 Journals in a much shorter period than is normal [distribution of OCJ2024/3 started about 12 December]. John Belling continues getting Newsletters and other announcements/ vital reminders circulated – very essential for busy lives! So, all items due under your 2024 subscription have now been dispatched.

RENEWAL DATE is first working day of January [UK 2025 - Friday 3rd January]. Renewal required to be completed by 31st March, i.e. Month end after the AGM. It does not allow us to financially plan events if members dally with renewals. Late payment may mean you are removed from the distribution lists.

Renewal time is also the time to update your e-mail and telephone contacts. I deal with the mailing lists – so it is VITAL all changes of information are sent directly to me, and not any other officer.

YOUR existing membership number appears on the Journal and posted newsletters envelope, numbers starting 5xxx or 8xxx - no renewal needed.

The UK membership rate for 2025 is unchanged since 2015 [Ordinary rate UK £30, Young members UK £12]. For those living outside of the UK Royal Mail delivery area [Ordinary £40, Young £22], payment must be in GB pounds, international banking fees plus currency variations must be allowed for in your payment [<https://www.xe.com/send-money/rates> : US$ 57, AUD$88, €53 just about covers £40 (in December 2024)]. Under-payment due to exchange factors will not be accepted. Non-£-sterling cheques are no longer allowed by the UK banks. If you follow the system used for your previous renewal, I know what to keep an eye open for.

Joint membership [UK]: Member £30. Each additional adult at the same address £15. Each young member: NO discount as the rate already subsidised by full rate payers.

If you are able to enrol another member, then a one-off discount of £5 for the year's payment is permitted, but the person enrolled must be shown clearly on the renewal form - or in an e-mail to me for electronic payments.

Any member wishing to renew for two years may do so, simply double your payment - but please advise or show on the renewal form that follows.

As we all know the postal rates are going up rapidly, so if you can receive Newsletters by e-mail, please do so.

I do have very limited stocks of past Journals should your copy arrived damaged by the post office – or you have lost your copy. It is going to be necessary to clear my stocks of Journals [and the unsold CDs] urgently as we are to have some work done on my home.

Organ specification leaflets – a request from Paul Hale

I have been collecting these for many years and am now finding them exceptionally useful when researching organ-builders and organs, which occupies much of my time these days! However, I do of course have gaps in my collection, several of which it would be useful to plug. If any Club members have collections of organ-builders' leaflets which they might be considering what to do with, I would be very grateful to add them to my archive (refunding postage, naturally), which will be well used, and in due course will be preserved in its entirety and made available for researchers in the future.

You can email me at PaulHale@diaphone.clara.net if you feel so inclined.

12:00: Light refreshments.

12:30-17:00. Philip Norman, George Allan and Bruce Buchanan will give presentations, plus two ½ hour organ recitals given by Ben Collyer and Evan Lawrence, and a short violin and piano recital given by Ben and Evan.

Saturday February 15th 2025: Caterham, Surrey

This interesting visit is organised by our President, John Varney.

10:30 St. John the Evangelist Church Caterham, Surrey.

I have invited Gavin Phelps, the junior winner at the recent competition to play a short recital and then present the Junior Cup which I was unable to do in London owing to illness.

Members then will have the opportunity to play.

12:30 Buffet Lunch in the church hall with guest speaker Peter Wright formerly Organist Southwark Cathedral.

14:15 to 15:45 St. Mary's Church Caterham on the Hill

16:00 to 17:00 St. Paul's Church Woldingham

Travel: trains from London Bridge or Victoria (change at East Croydon to Caterham).

St. John's is 2 - 3 minutes' walk from the station.

St. Mary's is up the hill: those fit enough could walk or car share or taxi.

There is virtually no parking at either the church or church hall - Morrisons car park around the corner has a 3 hour limit, the Waitrose/Apcoa car park fee is £6.60 (station car park levels 2 & 3 129 spaces).

St. Paul's Woldingham is about a 10-minute drive from St. Mary's. Again, car sharing or taxi is an option.

Meeting Charge: £20 including lunch.

Bookings to John Varney by February 1st and certainly no later than February 8th as the lunch caterers need to know numbers to prepare.

Telephone 01483 574326 . email jvarneyguildford@icloud.com .

Saturday March 15th 2025: AGM & celebrity recital by Thomas Trotter, St Margaret's Church, Westminster

The doors to the church will be opened to members of The Organ Club from 1.30pm, and the Annual General Meeting will be held at 2.00pm.

The very special recital by Thomas Trotter will begin at 3.30pm. You are welcome to invite non-member guests to the recital.

Members will be asked to contribute £10 towards the staffing and security costs, and non-members will be requested to pay £15.

We anticipate a good turnout for the recital, so you are advised to make sure that you arrive in good time. Advanced booking is not necessary.

In the Pipeline

The following visits are planned; full details will be given nearer to the time. Please note them in your diary! But could be subject to change.

Saturday April 26th 2025: Guards' Chapel & Westminster Chapel

10:30 for 11:00: The Royal Military Chapel (Guards' Chapel), Wellington Barracks (near St James's Park and Victoria stations). The Director of Music, Martin Ford, will talk about this iconic new organ (3m/40, Harrisons, opened 2024) and give a short recital. There will be time for a few members to play.

1:15 for 1:30: Westminster Chapel, Buckingham Gate (4m/1878 Willis/1982 Rushworth). This is an imposing instrument, whose magnificent case in the gallery dominates the 'east end' of the building. The organ curator, Ann Mitchell, is looking forward to our visit.

You will be asked to pay £10 for the whole (or part) of the day. Advanced booking is not necessary.

Saturday May 17th 2025: Two Royal Chapels

We begin in Windsor Great Park, in the Royal Family's private Chapel of All Saints' (2m Lewis, rebuilt 2024 by Nicholson). This building is not accessible to the public. We are privileged to have been invited by Canon Martin Poll (Chaplain to The King) and the Director of Music (Richard Furstenheim).

The second visit of the day will be to Hampton Court Palace Chapel (1690 Father Smith, Hill, Walker, 2013 Harrisons), where the Director of Music and Club member, Carl Jackson MVO, will welcome our party.

At both venues, members will be welcome to play the organs.

Full details in the next Newsletter. You will need to book in advance, and to provide ID on the day. As part of the security restrictions, we shall travel by coach as a party.
