Organ transcription of Dvořák's "New World Symphony"

Watch the World Online Premiere of Jonathan's performance of his new arrangement of the complete Dvořák "New World Symphony" on the incredible Pipe Organs of Billerbeck Dom, Germany. An EPIC piece of music needs an EPIC pipe organ, and this organ is amazing - it has so many wonderful features, from amazing solo voices, huge Trumpets & Tubas, and a full Carillon which is situated in the 100 metre tall bell tower (playable from the organ!!!). <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6d05A6bWtZE>

In the Pipeline

The following visits are planned; full details will be given nearer to the time. Please note them in your diary! But could be subject to change.

Saturday October 19th 2024: Thameside Oxfordshire Village Churches

This visit is organised by Mark Jameson.

Our plan is to visit four churches – more in the traditional way of local church visits – not quite “Padre Organ Scramble” as traffic no longer allows for this – so with some trepidation I have made arrangements to hire a coach to transport members. I have received many requests for a coach to be provided, but they are expensive and obtained quotes from several operators to get the best value for members.

The churches are booked, and I now need for members to take part – please book with me asap. The visit needs to break even, Treasurer not keen for me to confirm the coach without evidence that the visit is viable. TAXIS & OWN CARS are not an option because of parking at the first two churches. There is no viable public transport option.

There is another event being held in Dorchester Abbey which is why it is not included in this visit.

Schedule:

09:08 Depart London Paddington [Didcot service]

10:30 Pick up at Goring on Thames Station [good parking at this station]

11:00 - 12:15 Dorchester St Birinus RC, followed by lunch break §

13:35 Board coach to Clifton Hampden [approx 5 minute journey]

13:45 - 14:45 Clifton Hampden, St Michael and All Angels, Parish Church

15:00 - 16:00 Benson Parish Church of St Helen

16:15 -17:45 Warborough, St Laurence. Possible tea/soft drink at end. § suggest bring pack lunch or obtain snack from the various local pubs.

Return to Goring on Thames Station by 18:30, or sooner. 18:18/18:48 train arrives Paddington 19:20/19:52

Cost: per person: £30

Booking to markmdjameson@gmail.com or text 07802 715634.

 Calling all organ and Vaughan Williams fans!! *****

Vaughan Williams was born in Down Ampney Gloucestershire (and, of course, wrote the hymn tune of the same name to Come down O Love Divine).

The organ (NPOR Number N05700), installed at the behest of the Rector - his father - is 150 years old this year and remains virtually unchanged. It is "a little gem" showing the Builders J W Walker's mid-19th century skill and craftsmanship.

To mark this milestone a series of three recitals has been planned for this August to launch a full Conservation programme.
